Description
Grace Christian Academy is seeking a paraprofessional to join its faculty. This position is paid hourly following the school calendar. Paraprofessional responsibilities include providing classroom support, working with individual students or small groups, covering lunch/recess/morning duties, and will perform other duties as assigned.

A successful candidate will have:
A strong Christian testimony and relationship with Jesus Christ
A High School diploma
A dependable and punctual nature

For more than 28 years, Grace Christian Academy (GCA) has provided a high-quality, Christian education to K4-12th grade students. As an independent, non-denominational private Christian School, GCA challenges students to be their best in terms of academics, and more importantly, in terms of their growth as children of God. Our teachers are committed to the success of our students, and go above and beyond to support their academic achievement and spiritual growth.
